The Resurrection of the Lord

A Message from Fr. Matt ...

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Happy Easter! Jesus Christ is Risen! Alleluia!

Man, it feels good to say that. One of the hardest things to get used to at the beginning of Lent is not saying Alleluia. Then you kind of get used to it, right? It always surprises me how good it feels to say it again. It is a joyful word. Surprised by Joy! That is a good way to be at Easter.

So why are you here? Because it's Easter, of course, right? But why is this such a big deal? Why do people come at Easter who haven't been at Mass in weeks or months? Part of it is a tradition. It is just what you do. Maybe you are here because someone else invited you or "voluntold" that you were coming. Maybe you come every week. Whatever the reason, I am glad that you are here. So is Jesus!

In one of the most famous Easter sermons in history, St. John Chrysostom said that whatever the reason you have come today, whether you have come in "the first hour" or at the "eleventh hour," there is room for you today. You are welcome. There is a feast prepared for all, he says. Come and be filled.

"First and last alike, receive your reward; rich and poor, rejoice together! Sober and slothful, celebrate the day! You that have kept the fast, and you that have not, rejoice today for the Table is richly laden!"

Today is all good. It is a day to put away fear and guilt, shame and sorrow. For something bigger than all of that has happened. Something much bigger than ourselves, yet done for each one personally. St. John Chrysostom explains it this way:

*Hell took a body, and discovered God.
It took Earth, and encountered Heaven.
It took what it saw, and was overcome by what it did not see.*

Whatever your reason is for being here, I am happy that you have come. Whatever you think coming to Mass at Easter means, it means so much more. Jesus Christ has broken the chains of death and risen triumphantly from the grave!

And He did this for you!

Alleluia! Man, that feels good!

Peace and Love,
Fr. Matt

Divine Mercy Sunday, April 28 Holy Hour & Service at 3:00pm at MD

Recitation of the Divine Mercy Novena is everyday this week at 3:00pm at MD. A novena is nine days of prayer in preparation of a celebration of a feast day, in this case, Divine Mercy Sunday. Here in our Grouping, Good Friday was the first day of the Novena and it will conclude on Divine Mercy Sunday, April 28.

"I desire that during these nine days you bring souls to the fountain of My mercy, that they may draw there from strength and refreshment and whatever grace they have need of in the hardships of life, and especially at the hour of death" (Diary, 1209). St. Faustina

CATHOLIC HEART WORKCAMP

Catholic HEART Workcamp is about SERVICE, CONNECTION and LOVING OTHERS. It all started in 1993 in Orlando, FL with 100 participants and has grown to over 13,000 serving in 2018. CHWC provides parish youth groups, teens and adult leaders service opportunities to restore homes and HEARTS, feed the hungry, lift the spirits of children, bring joy to the elderly and disabled, and offer assistance while partnering with social agencies.

A chaperoned group of teens from Butler is going to Oil City, PA the week of July 21-27

Our aim is to provide nothing short of amazing Catholic mission trips! Each Workcamp is equipped with a summer staff, director, manager, musician, nurse and priests to celebrate mass/confession. It is a youth-friendly and Christ-centered week of caring for others. Catholic HEART Workcamp faithfully and enthusiastically serves the Roman Catholic Church and its teachings, and is an excellent opportunity to "love the least of these".

Reference - John 13:1-15 - Washing of the Disciples' Feet

1 Before the feast of Passover, [c] Jesus knew that his hour had come to pass from this world to the Father. He loved his own in the world and he loved them to the end. 2 The devil had already induced [d] Judas, son of Simon the Iscariot, to hand him over. So, during supper, 3 fully aware that the Father had put everything into his power and that he had come from God and was returning to God, 4 he rose from supper and took off his outer garments. He took a towel and tied it around his waist. 5 [e] Then he poured water into a basin and began to wash the disciples' feet and dry them with the towel around his waist. 6 He came to Simon Peter, who said to him, "Master, are you going to wash my feet?" 7 Jesus answered and said to him, "What I am doing, you do not understand now, but you will understand later." 8 Peter said to him, "You will never wash my feet." Jesus answered him, "Unless I wash you, you will have no inheritance with me." 9 Simon Peter said to him, "Master, then not only my feet, but my hands and head as well." 10 Jesus said to him, "Whoever has bathed [f] has no need except to have his feet washed, for he is clean all over; so you are clean, but not all." 11 For he knew who would betray him; for this reason, he said, "Not all of you are clean." 12 So when he had washed their feet [and] put his garments back on and reclined at table again, he said to them, "Do you realize what I have done for you?" 13 You call me 'teacher' and 'master,' and rightly so, for indeed I am. 14 If I, therefore, the master and teacher, have washed your feet, you ought to wash one another's feet. 15 I have given you a model to follow, so that as I have done for you, you should also do.
